

COPENHAGEN

Copenhagen is a compact big city packed with historic buildings lining its narrow cobbled streets. Here you will find a great mix of world-class gastronomy, beautiful architecture, award-winning design, clean harbor baths, the unique, free town of Christiania, and the seat of world's oldest monarchy. It has been named one of the best cities to live in several times, and it was the first city in the world to be named the 'Bike City' by the International Cycling Union – a title to which the several hundred bike lanes bear witness.

BARS & NIGHTLIFE

Whether you want to dance til the sun comes up or just have a beer or two with some friends, Copenhagen has plenty of establishments to choose from, ranging from laid-back bars to posh upscale clubs.

Copenhageners love to go out – especially on the weekends. Cocktails are popular, and you will find several bars where you can enjoy a skillfully crafted drink. If you are more of a beer person, Copenhagen offers various pubs, bars and breweries as well. Each neighborhood has its own favorite haunts, and (apart from downtown) Vesterbro and Nørrebro are the places to be after sundown.

K BAR

One of the top contenders for the title of best cocktail bar in Copenhagen, K Bar is a classy and trendy venue well-known to the capital dwellers. The vibe here is chill and laid-back, bartenders friendly and full house is to be expected on weekends.

CAFES

Curious about Danish cakes and pastry? When in Denmark you have to try a real Danish – or wienerbrød, as it is called in Denmark – they are sold in many varieties at bakeries and cafes all over. The oldest patisserie in Copenhagen is La Glace which was founded in 1870. Amongst many mouth-watering cakes and pastries you will find the classic Sports Cake, which mainly consists of whipped cream.

There is nothing better than to grab an ice cream cone to go on a nice day. Denmark is famous for its dairy products and you can taste why when you try local ice cream. Did you know that Danes are one of the most ice cream-eating people in the world? The average Dane eats 10 liters of ice cream a year!

GRØD

Currently one of the trendiest places in town, this establishment is all about porridge - the number of varieties astounds, and the taste will turn even some of the biggest skeptics. Bring your date here for breakfast, and choose from oatmeal, risotto, congee, quinoa and much more.

TOP 5 EVENTS

Copenhagen is renowned for being Northern Europe's largest festival city. Numerous events and festivals are held in the Danish capital during the year with themes ranging from rock and jazz to food, fashion, architecture, sports, film, ballet, design and visual arts.

ROSKILDE FESTIVAL

Roskilde Festival is one of the biggest rock events in the World and the biggest music festival in Northern Europe. It is held on a huge field near the city of Roskilde, half an hour's drive from Copenhagen City. The Festival has existed since 1971 but has not aged a bit. In fact, it just seems to become more and more popular. The 70,000 tickets available are usually sold out long before the programme is published. The festival is a huge party with guests from all around the world. Apart from the concerts, there are hundreds of stalls selling everything from jewellery and clothes to massages and tattoos.

DINING

Copenhagen is the leading gastronomy capital in Scandinavia. The city has more Michelin restaurants than any neighbouring country - 15 in total - and Copenhagen was until recently home to Noma, which was awarded as the World's Best Restaurant three years in a row. Whether you are into bistros or Michelin-starred restaurants there is plenty for you in Copenhagen. The restaurant scene is among the world's most distinct and innovative, and it caters to all budgets. When dining out try the much appraised Nordic kitchen at least once. It is known for being of high quality and with a focus on using local and seasonal produce.

WASCATOR

The list of dining options may be short, but packs a punch with some highlights such as coq-au-vin (made with white wine) or whitefish with egg salad. The inviting atmosphere will surely make you stay and enjoy the "bar" part of this establishment's focus.

DO & SEE

Copenhagen is an old city with historic buildings, royal castles, beautiful parks and harbours, and plenty of attractions and activities to keep even the most eager tourist busy. The city centre is characterized by charming architecture and narrow curving streets. But within recent years Copenhagen has supplemented its architectural heritage with new, world-class architecture. It is easy to explore the city and get around, and many sights are within walking distance from one another. You can always catch a bus, metro to get around or rent a bike - and travel the Danish way.

STATENS MUSEUM FOR KUNST (THE NATIONAL GALLERY)

Statens Museum for Kunst, the Danish national gallery, is the only place in Denmark that features 700 years of Western art and cultural history under one roof. Consequently a visit to the museum means an artistic encounter between classical, modern and contemporary art, just as the museum building in itself represents a fusion of new and old. In addition to the permanent exhibition the museum is also highly capable of delivering temporary exhibitions of international quality and outlook.

CHRISTIANIA

This city within a city is a self-proclaimed autonomous community, home to about 800 permanent residents who took over this abandoned military complex in 1971. The “freetown” they created was controversial at first, but with its heavy emphasis on tolerance, community and ecology it eventually gained recognition from the government and has since endured as a “social experiment.” The infamous “Pusher Street” can be a little intimidating, but beyond it lie the homes and gardens of the alternative and free-thinking residents.

THE ROUND TOWER

Observatory – Platform – Concert and Exhibition Hall

The Round Tower is one of the best known and most popular structures in Denmark. It is the oldest functioning observatory in Europe, and the platform that runs around the Observatory on the top of the tower affords views over the old Latin Quarter of Copenhagen. The road leading to the top takes the form of a white-washed spiral walk, passing the old Library which is the forum of exhibitions and concerts.

ESSENTIAL INFORMATION

AIRPORT

Copenhagen has the shortest distance from airport to city in Europe. It only takes 15 minutes by metro from the airport to Kongens Nytorv and 12 minutes by train to the Central Station in the city centre next to Tivoli.

The train station is located in Terminal 3, and the metro station is right above it. Tickets may be purchased directly in Terminal 3 from self-service machines or a DSB ticket sales counter.

Lufthavnsboulevarden 6, Kastrup

PUBLIC TRANSPORT

The Copenhagen Metro, which has been ranked the best in the world for several years running, runs between the airport and the city centre - useful for both tourists and locals. It takes just 15 minutes to get from the airport to Kongens Nytorv in the heart of Copenhagen, but you can also get off at Christianshavn or Nørreport. Web: www.m.dk

S-trains - The bright red regional "S" trains connect the suburbs and the surrounding towns with the city. Web: www.dsb.dk

Buses are efficient and use the same ticketing and pricing system as the S trains and the metro. www.moviatrafik.dk

SHOPPING

Copenhagen is great for shopping, both because of the variety of the shops and because the city is compact. Start your shopping trip in the inner city. On Strøget, you will find most of the big chain stores and more exclusive shops.

Stroll down the small streets parallel to Strøget and Købmagergade where you will find vintage shops, Danish designers such as Wood Wood, Malene Birger and Henrik Vibskov, and small jewelry and ceramics shops.

Streets outside the inner city that are worth checking out are Istedgade, Gl. Kongevej, Elmegade, Jægersborggade and Østerbrogade. Enjoy, and remember your walking shoes.

PLAYTYPE

The best way to describe this unique little store is as a "typography playground" that far not only graphic designers will find entertaining. What's on display here is the result of experimenting with all sorts of prints, and the items on sale are products created by a Danish brand and design agency e-Types.

LATIN QUARTER

Copenhagen's very own Latin Quarter is made up of 4 main streets (Studiestræde, Skt. Pedersstræde, Larsbjørnsstræde and Teglgårdsstræde), and is known for the variety of creative avantgarde boutiques, as well as second-hand shops and food take-outs. The proximity to the University means the area is always flooded with hip, in-style youngsters.

Larsbjørnsstræde, Copenhagen

VESTERBRO

The neighborhood of Vesterbro isn't only home to Copenhagen's red light district and some of the best eateries in town, but also quite a few vintage shops and clothing boutiques that will surely make a fashionista's heart beat faster. Do not miss Istedgade street, the hippest of them all.

Vesterbro, Copenhagen

JÆGERSBORGGADE

Jægersborggade is a street that has managed to shed its reputation of being somewhat dodgy and has recently turned into one of Copenhagen's hippest. The street runs through the upcoming neighborhood of Nørrebro and is lined with vintage boutiques, cafes and even Michelin-starred restaurants.

Jægersborggade, Copenhagen

THE CITY

Copenhagen is an old city with beautiful historic buildings and attractions. The ramparts and walls, which surrounded the inner city, were taken down in the middle of the 1800s. This has given the city charming architecture with narrow curving streets in the center combined with a pulsating shopping and café scene.

Over the past few years, Copenhagen has supplemented its architectural heritage with new, world-class architecture. Star architects both Danish such as Bjarke Ingels and international have built imposing buildings which look to the future. New districts and architecture have sprung up to mix well with the past.

Copenhagen is characterized by its relaxed spirit and Copenhageners bike to work, relax with their families in parks, jump in the harbor pools in the summer, and actively participate in the many events held in the city.

VESTERBRO

Once Vesterbro was mostly known for its infamous red light district. Today it is one of the hippest places around. The district is situated within walking distance from the city centre, right behind the Central Station. It is one of the most fashionable places in the city - not just to live, but to shop, eat, drink and have a great night out.

NØRREBRO

Vibrant, colorful, casual and young at heart. Nørrebro is a lively area of Copenhagen. You will find trendy bars and fashionable designer shops next door to dodgy dive bars and cheap kebab places.

If you are into small design shops head for Elmegade or Jægersborggade, and if you like antiques Ravensborggade is the place to go. At Sankt Hans Torv and the streets around it you have several choices for dinner and drinks. And at Assistens Cemetery you can visit the grave of famous Danes or do like the Nørrebro citizens and relax in the park

FREDERIKSBERG

Frederiksberg is a fashionable part of Copenhagen with excellent shopping opportunities and green spaces.

It is more posh than Nørrebro and Vesterbro, and the people living here are usually older and more established.

Main street through Frederiksberg is Gammel Kongevej - 'Kings Road'. Shopping is great here with many clothing shops as well as sushi restaurants, cafes and deli's. The same is true for street Værnedamsvej, which is both cosy and cool. Frederiksberg is also a green oasis with Frederiksberg Gardens, the romantic Garden of the Faculty of Life Sciences and Søndermarken.

INNER CITY

Inner City is the heart of Copenhagen. It includes Copenhagen's oldest neighborhood with small, narrow streets and crooked houses. In the center you will find a myriad of great shopping streets, cozy cafes, restaurants, as well as green areas, parks, charming canals and a modern waterfront. The main artery of Inner City is the pedestrian street Strøget, that runs from City Hall Square to Kongens Nytorv. Strøget is always packed with people and street artists, but be sure to move down the numerous exciting side streets.

ØSTERBRO

Broad boulevards, parks, delicacies, design shops. The neighborhood of Østerbro is somewhat posh and at the same time completely down to earth. Østerbro is located north of Copenhagen city centre. It is one of Copenhagen's most attractive and expensive living areas with the shops to match. Shop design at Normann Copenhagen, sip a glass of wine at Panzon or chill in Fælledparken – Denmark's largest public park.
