

SIEM REAP

Siem Reap presents you the world like you've never seen it before. Be ready to be embraced by people with a warm culture and a country with unique traditions that date back from the Angkorian Empire.

At night this small town lightens up as people relax after a long day visiting the temples. Be inspired by Apsara dancing, Khmer traditional art and by ancient temples surrounded by ancient trees in an eloquent collaboration between art and nature.

ESSENTIAL INFORMATION

POST

The postal system in Cambodia claims for patience from its users. It can take up to several months for a post card to reach the receiver. The main post office of the town is located at:

Pokambor Av., Siem reap
+855 63 760 000

Monday-Sunday: 7.00-17.30

Located on the west side of the river about 500 meters from the traffic circle.

PHARMACY

PUBLIC TRANSPORT

Siem Reap's transportation consists mainly of motor-taxi drivers or tuk-tuks, most of whom speak English. Per day, renting a motor-taxi driver costs between $5-10 and tuk-tuks between $12-15.

Tuk-tuks are convenient because they are covered and can seat at least two passengers. Bicycles are also available for rent and are a pleasant way to explore the temples and town. Most transportation can be organized through you hotel or guest house.

No tourist is allowed to rent or drive a motorbike/tuk-tuk or car in Siem Reap.

TAXI

It is common to book a taxi with a driver for a whole day and this is the easiest way to travel to different sights. One of the taxi companies in the city is Siem Reap Taxi.

CAFES

Siem reap is centred around the small river running through it. Have a cold beer, enjoy a foot massage or wander through the gift shops and do it all at a leisurely pace. Have a coffee break and enjoy some of the lovely fruit from the area. The town is a haven for fruit lovers – from mangoes of all shapes and sizes to delicious mangoustines.

BLUE PUMPKIN

Great pastries, good fruit smoothies and ice cream, these are a few good reasons to visit the Blue Pumpkin Café. Comfortable seating and free WiFi in the lovely coolness of an air conditioned room makes it even better.
